Are you a current undergraduate UWM student dealing with unforeseen expenses?

Is this financial emergency making it difficult for you to stay in college?

We may be able to help.

Apply for a UWM Emergency Grant.

To be eligible, you must:

- Be enrolled as an undergraduate student in a degree-granting program.
- Complete the FAFSA and have an Expected Family Contribution of $7,000 or less.
- Provide documentation of the financial emergency. To receive a grant faster, attach supporting documents when you apply. Examples include repair estimates, medical bills, lease agreement, etc.
- Have never received a UWM Emergency Grant before.

A grant can cover unforeseen expenses such as:

- Utilities
- Childcare
- Food/meals
- Housing/rent
- Medical/Dental expenses
- Personal automobile expenses/gas

A grant cannot cover:

- Tuition
- Fees
- Books
- Entertainment expenses
- Credit card bills
- Legal fees
- Fines

Apply for a UWM Emergency Grant at uwm.dreamkeepers.org or stop by the Dean of Students Office in Mellencamp 118.
