LINDA HUANG

UWM Academic Staff Outstanding Performance & Service Award*

Linda Huang, Administrative Program Manager III, Department of Global Inclusion & Engagement

Huang has championed a series of university and community initiatives aimed at improving UWM’s engagement with the community, as well as serving under-represented students in Milwaukee and across the country.

Huang has been with the Asian Faculty and Staff Association steering committee since it was established in 2004, working on fundraising for the awards program and organizing student events.

DISTINGUISHED PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD
GWAT-YONG LIE
UWM Faculty Distinguished Public Service Award

Gwat-Yong Lie, Associate Dean, Helen Bader School of Social Welfare, Department of Social Work

Lie has contributed greatly to UWM and to the Milwaukee community, teaching and conducting research in child welfare, homelessness and women’s issues. She has used her expertise to give back to the community, and has been a part of several initiatives aimed at tackling these issues.

“Gwat-Yong Lie has demonstrated her commitment to excellence in research, scholarship, and most importantly public service,” wrote Kathy Miller-Dillon, assistant chair of the women’s studies committee.
