Video Documentary - Still Waters Collective (Spring 2017)

Program description:
A 12 week paid internship that explores and documents the life and growth of Still Waters Collective: local spoken word artists on the road to the national poetry slam competition. Interns will film local poetry slams throughout MPS schools, document workshops on world issues, and learn how to edit a video series of narratives.

Dates and Times:
Interns will need to be available on Wednesdays, Fridays, and Saturdays for total of 10 hours a week.

Additional hours will be required, and a detailed schedule will be given upon hiring. Interns will also attend six hours of career coaching at ManpowerGroup headquarters in downtown Milwaukee at dates to be determined during the internship program. Attendance at all sessions is expected.

Location:
ArtWorks for Milwaukee (207 E. Buffalo Street, Suite 600). Community events around and throughout the city and MPS schools.

Candidate Qualifications:

No prior art experience necessary, but:
1) You must be enrolled in a high school in Milwaukee County for the duration of the program.
2) Previous digital videography is preferred. A desire to learn videography.

Wage: Intern artists are paid $7.25 per hour.

To Apply: please visit our website to apply on line – www.artworksformilwaukee.org
Deadline to Apply is Saturday, January 7th at 11:59pm

Email kristen@artworksformilwaukee.org to set up an interview and for more information.