RELATED OPPORTUNITIES

BUSINESS SCHOLARS PROGRAM

High achieving Lubar students will be invited to enroll in Bus Adm 231, the Scholars version of Bus Adm 230 Introduction to Information Technology Management. In this freshmen class, a student can get a sense of what a Scholars course is like. If the student later applies to the Scholars Program and is admitted, this course can be counted as 3 of the 23 required credits in Scholars courses.

A few of the highlights of Wisconsin’s premier program for high achieving students include:

- Smaller class size and instruction from the Lubar School’s top faculty—fostering student interaction and individual attention.
- Additional scholarships, corporate field trips, and other opportunities to connect academic excellence with career ambitions.
- An assigned academic advisor to aid in designing individual degree plans.

HONORS COLLEGE

As Lubar School of Business incoming freshmen, students may receive an invitation to join the UWM Honors College. Lubar Students are able to pursue those requirements as well as a Business degree and graduate within a four year timeline. For additional information on the Honors program, please contact honorweb@uwm.edu.

LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITY FOR BUSINESS

On the UWM campus, many freshmen are invited to join a Living Learning Community while residing in one of the residence halls. It is an exciting way to live on-campus and meet fellow students within an academic area of interest. Lubar Direct Admit students that take advantage of this opportunity will still be eligible to apply to the Scholars program and fulfill all Business degree requirements in a timely fashion. For more information on the Living Learning Communities, please call 414-229-5385 or visit llc.uwm.edu.

APPLICATION INFORMATION

To be eligible for these awards, students must apply and be accepted to UWM by November 1. Students meeting the eligibility criteria will be contacted.
