Guidelines for Helen Bader Age & Community Scholarship
Application for funding for Fall 2017 and Spring 2018

Scholarship Descriptions

The primary purpose of the scholarship is to increase the number of people with the knowledge and skills to work with and on behalf of older adults. The scholarship provides financial support for graduate students who are pursuing a certificate focused on gerontology. Scholarships may be used to cover the cost of tuition, fees, books, and room and board.

Scholarships are for one year. Students may reapply for a second or third year of support; however, they will receive lowest priority in the review of applicants.

Application Criteria

The applicant must:

- Have a cumulative 3.0 or higher undergraduate GPA or a cumulative 3.0 or higher graduate GPA for at least two consecutive semesters.
- Demonstrate a commitment to the field of gerontology
- Be admitted to the Graduate Certificate Program in Applied Gerontology program at UW-Milwaukee at the time of application. New applicants to the certificate must contact Rachelle Alioto (ralioto@uwm.edu, 414.229.7313) to discuss their plan of study prior to submitting the scholarship application.

Application process

The applicant must:

- Submit two (2) letters of recommendation; at least one that comments on academic potential. Recommendation letters must be on letterhead and signed by the person making the recommendation.
- Submit an essay that addresses unique qualifications for receiving this award, focusing on experience in and commitment to the field of aging.
- Submit his/her final undergraduate transcript and most recent graduate transcripts (if applicable); For UWM students, unofficial transcripts are acceptable. You may request unofficial transcripts through your PAWS account up to once per day by selecting "Other Academics" in your Student Center.

Deadlines

Applications must be received in the Center for Aging and Translational Research by Friday, March 3, 2017. Awards will be announced no later than March 31st.

Application materials should be hand delivered or sent (the postmark date must be March 3) to:
