

BACHELOR OF ARTS IN GLOBAL STUDIES

University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

Global Security Track (revised 1-11-17)

This track examines the changing conceptions and conditions shaping global security. In addition to exploring traditional notions of security based on the nation-state and the international system, coursework in this track considers a wide range of issues including global health, the environment, human rights, peace-building efforts, 21st century conflict, social movements, migration, ethnicity, and identity. The Global Security track will prepare students for careers relevant to various aspects of global conflict management and/or sustainability, such as those in government agencies and diplomacy, non-profit organizations, international organizations, and the public policy community.

Enrolling in the Global Studies B.A. Degree Program

Any student interested in pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Global Studies should set up a meeting with a Global Studies advisor in Garland Hall, Christine Wolf, cawolf@uwm.edu, 229-6925, Garland 111. Students may enroll in the Global Studies degree program by declaring their major as Global Studies, which is possible after they have earned 56 credits. The simple process includes: (1) reviewing the degree requirements with a Global Studies advisor, and (2) signing the Declaration of Major Form. Students who intend to pursue a Global Studies degree are strongly advised to declare before earning 75 credits.

◀ DEGREE CORE COURSES ▶

Common to all tracks is the degree's core curriculum, which includes the following:

Global Studies Degree Core Courses
