

48th Algonquian Conference

Thursday, October 13, 2016

6:00 - 8:00 PM

Registration - in front of Bolton Hall Room 150

FRIDAY, October 14, 2016

8:00 - 3:00 PM

Registration - in front of Bolton Hall Room 150

8:30 – 9:00 AM

Coffee Break - Bolton Hall 196

Room Number	Bolton B52	Bolton B46	Bolton 150
9:30 AM	Friesen & Sylliboy: The morpheme eke in Mi'kmaq : A light verb, not a detransitivizing final	Awanhopay: Menominee Revitalization	Pentland: The Origins of the Algonquian Impersonal ("Passive") Inflections
10:00 AM	Arppe, Schmirler, Silfverberg, & Wolvengrey: Computational modeling of the derivational morphology of Plains Cree verbs		Rhodes: Peter Jones's Genesis
10:30 AM	Coffee Break - Bolton Hall 196
11:00 AM	LeSourd & Knipp: Pitch Accent in Maliseet-Passamaquoddy: An Instrumental Study	Nilsen: Revisiting the Derivation of some Menominee Morphophonological Rules	Xu: Subject preference and object attraction in Conjunct central agreement
11:30 AM	Special Session: Raptor Identities - Following a brief introduction, join us to share names for visiting raptors in your language. Bolton Hall 150
12:00 PM - 1:30 PM	Lunch Break (on your own)
1:30 PM	LeSourd: Second-Position Enclitics Occur Within Constituents in Maliseet-Passamaquoddy	Schmirler, Harrigan, Arppe, & Wolvengrey: Plains Cree Verbal Derivational Morphology: A Corpus Investigation	Stoltzfus & Boissard: Lexical patterning in Michif: reconsidering the role of French
2:00 PM	Goddard: The Unami Harmony (1837 [1839]) of Ira Blanchard, a pioneering Algonquian linguist	Harrigan, Schmirler, Arppe, & Wolvengrey: Lexical Subtypes in a Plains Cree Corpus	Hamilton & Despici: Theme Signs & Multiple Argument indexing

48th Algonquian Conference

2:30 PM	Boissard: Semantic considerations on lexical passives in Innu	Acton: Learning About Cultural Priorities for Child Language Development in a First Nation: Interviews with James Bay Cree Parents and Elders	Baldwin, Sullivan, Corn and Terraza.: Linguistics in Revitalization Panel
3:00 PM	Miller: Re-examining the front vowels in Sauteaux Ojibwe: the case for the short /e/	Paille: Discursive Uses of Main-Clause Conjunct Verbs in Ojibwe
3:30 PM	Coffee Break Bolton 196
4:00 PM	Business Meeting in Bolton 150
5:00 PM	LaCrosse at Lake Park (maps available in walking distance)
SATURDAY, October 15, 2016
8:00 - 3:00 PM	Registration - in front of Bolton Hall Room 150
9:00 AM	Coffee Break Bolton 196
Room Number	Bolton B52	Bolton B46	Bolton 150
9:30 AM	Howard: The Community - Our Extended Family: Relationality at the Intersection of Healing and Research in Indigenous Health Services in Toronto	Terraza: A pedagogical grammar of Moose Cree for L2 learners	Little: On the morphophonology of Mi'gmaq subject agreement
10:00 AM	Thomason: Postposed preverbs and pre-nouns in Meskwaki	Collette: Paradigm Levelling in the South East Cree Conjunct Transitive Animate Inflections	Murray: Mass and count nouns in Cheyenne
10:30 AM	Coffee Break Bolton 196
11:00 AM	Glassburn-Falzetti: Finding Better Ways to Teach Grammar: A Community-Linguist Partnership in the Miami Nation	Fairbanks: Realis and Irrealis Constructions in Ojibwe	Schaefer: Alford's Shawnee Translation of the Gospels

48th Algonquian Conference

11:30 AM	Miyashita: Pitch and Intensity of Lexical Accent in Blackfoot	Abney: CLD: Software for analysis of Anishinaabemowin texts and recordings	Cenerini: Towards a renewed understanding of Cree-Innu-Naskapi Dialectology: an analysis of phonological, lexical and grammatical isoglosses in the Algonquian Linguistic Atlas
12:00 - 1:30 PM	Lunch Break (on your own)
1:30 PM	Weber: Blackfoot reflexes of Proto-Algonquian...	Quinn, Nicholas , Paul & Jeddore: Reducing anxiety, increasing core competence: a practical program for beginner adult heritage learners of Eastern Algonquian languages	Costa: Rounding Dissimilation in Miami-Illinois
2:00 PM	Bliss: The Robustness of Blackfoot's Proximate and Obviative Inflection	McGahey: Comparing dialectal differences of Anishinaabemowin from Southern / Central Ontario from a learners' perspective	Lockwood: Revisiting the Position of Potawatomi in (Central) Algonquian
2:30 PM	Jancewicz: Exploring English Language Methodology to Naskapi L1 teaching	Naokwegijig-Corbiere: Nishnaabemwin revitalization through a cultural studies lens	Lewis: Theme signs in Potawatomi as object agreement and the inverse
3:00 PM	Coffee Break - Bolton Hall 196
3:30 PM	Boarding a bus (or transport on your own) to Indian Community School
4:00 PM	Boarding a bus (or transport on your own) to Indian Community School
4:30 PM	Tour of Milwaukee Indiana Community School (10405 W. St. Martins Road, Franklin, WI)
5:00 PM	Dinner
6:30 PM	Special open mic session of creative reading in contemporary Algonquian Languages
SUNDAY OCTOBER 16
9:00 AM	Coffee Break - Bolton Hall 196
Room Number	Bolton B52	Bolton B46	Bolton 150
9:30 AM	Junker, Quinn & Valentine: Evidentiality and Epistemic Modality in Algonquian	Dahlstrom: Embedded questions in Meskwaki: syntax and information	Breu, Wade, Warrington, & Langenfeld: Interdisciplinary studies in Anishinaabemowin at UW-Milwaukee
10:00 AM	Pitawanakwat: Word Order	van Eijk: Cree Animacy-Inanimacy Hierarchy: A Conspectus
10:30 AM	Meyer: Status of Classifying Morphemes in Ojibwe	Pyle: How do you say "two-spirit" in Algonquian?	