WELCOME HOME!

Congratulations on your plans to attend the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee! We are excited that University Housing could be called your home for the 2017 summer term! Inside is your UWM University Housing Summer Contract Guidebook, which contains your Contract terms and Contract Signature Page which you should submit at the point you wish to contract for housing. We strongly encourage you to review these legally binding terms carefully so you understand your responsibilities as a contract holder.

Room assignments will be made based on a first-come, first-serve basis. This process is unlike the academic year assignment process, which is by lottery, due to the nature and size of our summer housing program. University Housing will communicate with you via email, at the address you provided, once your summer room assignment has been made.

Thank you for your interest in University Housing!

Kari Dawson
Assistant Director-Business Administration

Eligibility and/or summer course enrollment will be verified prior to acceptance of your contract. If you have been granted an exception to the eligibility requirements you may be asked to submit additional documentation.

This contract will become legally binding once it has been submitted to University Housing. Failure to read or understand this contract does not excuse you from complying with the provisions contained in it. Further, failure to move into or use your room does not alter your obligations under this contract.

You agree that there will be no modification of this contract without the written consent of University Housing. Any request for modification of the contract (i.e., cancellation of contract prior to assigned date of entry, termination of contract on or after assigned date of entry, meal plan change, room change, etc.) must be requested in writing and submitted to the University Housing office for approval. Verbal and/or pending requests do not constitute a change in the conditions of the contract. You may not assign or allow others to use the space covered by this contract.

Cancellation requests must be received by University Housing at least 24 hours before your Assigned Entry Date (the “Cancellation Deadline”). If later, the request will be processed as a Contract Termination as outlined in Section F.
2. University Housing may also cancel this contract without prior notice to you on or prior to the Cancellation Deadline in the event that you:
   a. have an overdue debt to UWM or University Housing and/or have a record of past failure to meet financial obligations to UWM;
   b. have experienced a change in contract eligibility (e.g., term change, reduction in enrollment, non-enrollment, termination of employment with UWM, etc.);
   c. have failed to properly complete this Contract and/or submit required documents;
   d. have demonstrated by past or current behavior, an unwillingness or inability to fulfill the conditions of this Contract; or
   e. have demonstrated by past or current behavior that your presence in the Residence Halls may pose an unreasonable risk to yourself or others.
3. In the event of cancellation, fees equal $25, regardless of the submission date.

F. TERMINATION OF CONTRACT
1. You must terminate your contract using the Summer Contract Adjustment Form to University Housing and provide it no fewer than 2 business days before your intended vacate date. You are responsible for providing proof of special circumstances warranting termination to University Housing. If, following an approved termination, University Housing determines that your reason(s) for terminating your Contract was or is no longer valid, your Contract will be reinstated and you will be responsible for all charges associated with this Contract.
   a. University Housing, in its sole discretion, may decide whether to grant termination of the Contract. Reasons that University Housing may approve termination include, but are not limited to, the following:
      i. graduation, as long as your requested Termination Date is the same or later than the posted graduation date;
      ii. assignment to a UWM-sponsored internship or other program which requires living outside of Milwaukee County;
      iii. withdrawal or transfer from UWM; or
      iv. called to active military duty.
   b. University Housing may also initiate termination. Causes for administratively initiated termination include, but are not limited to:
      i. any/all of the reasons detailed in section E(1)(a) above;
      ii. inappropriate actions and/or behavior;
      iii. past or current behavior that demonstrates your presence in the Residence Halls may pose an unreasonable risk to yourself or others;
      iv. failure or refusal to maintain the assigned room in good condition;
      v. failure to comply with UWM Policies; or
      vi. ceasing to be a UWM student in good standing (e.g. academic dismissal).
   c. If University Housing approves your termination request and/or initiates termination, your termination date (the “Termination Date”) will be the date provided in University Housing’s notification/approval of termination. You must vacate the Residence Halls by the Termination Date. In the case of a serious violation of law and/or UWM Policies, or a reasonable belief that a threat exists, you may be required to vacate within 24 hours. In the event that you file an appeal, you must still vacate by the Termination Date.
   d. You will be charged a prorated daily rate based on your assigned room type until the later of (i) the Termination Date and (ii) the date on which all keys issued to you, if any, are returned and you have vacated the premises (the “Effective Termination Date”).

2. Termination Fees/Penalties
   a. If University Housing APPROVES your termination request:
      i. Your room charges will be prorated through and including the Effective Termination Date;
      ii. You will be billed any applicable room and common area damage charges.
   b. If University Housing terminates your Contract, or if your termination request is NOT APPROVED by University Housing and you vacate:
      i. You will be billed 100% for room charges through and including the Effective Termination Date or for the remaining duration of the contract, whichever is greater and 85% of room charges for the minimum four (4) weeks of your contract period, whichever is greater.
      ii. You will be billed any applicable room and common area damage charges.

3. Failure to occupy/use assigned room
   a. You are liable for charges from your contract submission date until your Contract is terminated pursuant to the terms set forth in Section (F)(1) above, whether or not you are actually in residence or otherwise physically occupy the room. Failure to use an assigned room does not constitute a change in Contract status or alter your financial obligations in any way.

G. SUSPENSION OF CONTRACT

You are not entitled to a reduction in amounts owed pursuant to this Contract for absences due to extended leaves (e.g. hospital stays, vacations).

University Housing reserves the right to temporarily suspend this Contract without notice in the event of an emergency which would render the Residence Halls unsafe to persons or property. If such an event lasts more than three days, you will be refunded a prorated amount for the period that occupancy was denied. In the event that your occupancy is suspended due to your violation of law and/or UWM Policies, you will not be entitled to any refund for the period occupancy was denied.

Restaurant Operations may suspend operations or change the location of its operations as a result of an emergency or during any recess period.

H. VACATING & ABANDONED PROPERTY

Your occupancy period ends (your “Occupancy End Date”) on the earlier of:
   1. Your approved Contract departure date,
   2. No later than 24-hours immediately following the last day of classes of the final summer session you are enrolled,
   3. Friday, August 19, 2017

2017-2018 CONTRACT HOLDERS: If you have submitted a 2017-2018 contract and your summer sessions end on August 19, 2017 you are eligible to request an Occupancy End Date of August 28, 2017 (Residence Halls) or August 31, 2017 (Kenilworth Square Apartments). This would allow you to remain in University Housing through the start of your next 2017-2018 Academic Year contract.

If you contract to continue to reside in University Housing until the start of your 2017-2018 academic year contract you will be required to move to your fall assignment starting August 13-15, 2017. The move from your summer assignment to your fall assignment will be considered the start of your 2017-2018 academic year contract and you will be required to abide by those contract terms.

Summer charges will be applied through August 28, 2017 or your 2017-2018 assigned date of entry, whichever comes first.

You will be notified, by email, in advance by University Housing of your scheduled move date so that you may make necessary arrangements. It is expected that you will be available to move during August 13 through August 15, 2017. Your Summer Housing contract must reflect an end date of August 28, 2017 to be eligible to transition to your Fall space.

Kenilworth residents for the 2017-2018 academic year may transition to their permanent Kenilworth room as early as August 1, 2017. Students would be responsible for their Kenilworth rent from the date of move-in.

Summer residents who subsequently cancel their 2017-2018 Academic Year contract must also vacate by no later than 12:00pm noon on August 19, 2017, regardless of the original approved contract departure date. Late or improper departure penalties will be applied.

When vacating your Summer room, you must follow the written instructions provided to you. This includes returning your keys as designated, removing personally owned or rented furniture and equipment, waste and debris, and leaving the room in an acceptable, clean condition with all furnishings intact. A room inspection by University Housing will serve as the basis for check-out charges or refunds. You will be assessed a service charge if additional housekeeping and/or removal of belongings is required. Any property left in the Residence Halls after the Occupancy End Date will be removed. If not claimed within 15 calendar days after the Occupancy End Date, it will be considered abandoned and will be disposed of accordingly.

Penalty charges are assessed for failure to vacate on your stated departure date. Lock changes may occur at your expense for lost and/or unreturned keys - $75 improper check-out fee, $75 per room key, $15 per mailbox key, and $15 per fob.

I. DAMAGES

You agree to pay for any damages to the Residence Halls, including for fire, damaged or missing furniture, lost property, or service costs caused by your negligent, intentional or reckless actions and those of your guests. Where two or more residents occupy the same room and responsibility for damage or loss cannot be ascertained by University Housing, the cost of damage or loss will be divided and assessed equally between or among the residents of the room. University Housing reserves the right to assess common area damage among residents of any room/floor/community and/or building.

J. NO LANDLORD TENANT RELATIONSHIP

This Contract pertains to dwelling units operated by the UWM whose occupancy is incidental to the provision of educational services. Occupancy is contingent on concurrent enrollment and good standing at UWM. This Contract only grants a limited and restricted license to occupy a dwelling unit and is not subject to any of the provisions of Wisconsin Statutes Chapter 704 or Wisconsin Administrative Code Chapter ATCP 134.

K. LIABILITY & INSURANCE

UWM, the UWM Real Estate Foundation, Inc., and their officers, employees, and agents (collectively, the “Covered Parties”) will not provide reimbursement for you or your guests’ personal property resulting from loss, theft, water damage, vandalism, or any other perils, unless damage results from the acts, omissions, or negligence of a specific University employee.

You agree to hold harmless the Covered Parties from any and all liability, including claims, demands, costs, damages, and expenses of every kind and description (including death) for damages sustained by you or others as a result of your acts or omissions, including those that relate to changes or modifications made by you to your room or furnishings such as bookshelves, partitions, or other structures. This means that you are financially responsible for injury to another party, or damage to their property, as a result of any equipment or items you have constructed, created or purchased, and that you will pay any resulting claims on behalf of the Covered Parties. You also further agree to accept all such responsibility for your guests and will accompany your guests each time they visit any UWM Residence Hall.

In light of the above, it is recommended that you have sufficient homeowner’s and/or renter’s insurance in place.

L. FINANCIAL APPEALS

If you believe that you were charged incorrectly, you should contact University Housing immediately to discuss the matter. If the matter remains unresolved, you may file an appeal with the Financial Appeals Committee (see www.uwm.edu/housing for details on the appeal process). You have 120 days to file a financial appeal from (i) the date the disputed charge was posted to your UWM PAWS account (if you are a UWM student) or (ii) the date of the University Housing invoice you are disputing (if you are not a UWM student). Appeals for charges older than 120 days will not be reviewed except as required by law.
M. ROOM ASSIGNMENTS & ROOM CHANGES

Your Contract is for a room as assigned by University Housing in its sole discretion, not for a particular requested room or building. Residents are assigned to a room, factoring in indicated preferences. Failure to rate any preferences will result in a room assignment based on availability.

Roommate preferences must be by mutual request, be for identical room type, and must be submitted to University Housing on the Summer Housing Contract. Roommate pairings are honored based on availability. Failure by University Housing to grant your assignment preference does not void this Contract.

University Housing does not discriminate in room assignments or any other decisions on the basis of age, ancestry, arrest or conviction record, color, disability, gender identity/expression, veteran status, marital status, national origin, pregnancy, political affiliation, race, religion, sex, or sexual orientation.

University Housing also reserves the right to consolidate room assignments based on vacancies. University Housing reserves the right to change room assignments, to assign roommates, and to consolidate room assignments based on vacancies, at any time in its sole discretion. You may not change rooms at any time without prior written approval from University Housing. Unauthorized room changes and/or failure to change rooms at a designated time may result in you being required to move back to your authorized assignment, a service charge of $75, and/or disciplinary action.

N. REASONABLE ACCOMMODATIONS

Residents with disabilities who seek accommodations or modifications to a Residence Hall space (e.g. an accessible shower stall, doorbell with flasher) and/or UWM Policies must notify University Housing by submitting the Housing Accommodation Request Form with supporting documentation.

O. RULES AND REGULATIONS

You, your guests (if applicable), and any other guests, are required to observe all applicable laws and UWM Policies.

P. VACCINATIONS & HYGIENE

Wisconsin law [sec. 36.25(46)] requires students who reside in the Residence Halls to affirm that they have received vaccination against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B, and to provide the dates of vaccination, if any.

While living in the Residence Halls, you are responsible for your own self-care including appropriate personal hygiene, physical and mental health, management of medical conditions or illnesses, and other personal needs. You are expected to utilize the various resources available to you to provide this care for yourself. If you are unable to meet these self-care expectations and/or you cause harm to yourself or others, you may be asked to adhere to an action plan and/or vacate the Residence Halls.

Q. ROOM ENTRY

Authorized personnel may enter your room for serious life- or health-threatening emergencies at any time, including over recesses. Authorized personnel may enter your room to perform requested, preventive, prescheduled, or emergency maintenance, to assess for any damages after you have vacated, or, in the absence of occupants of the room, to silence a disruptive noise. When possible, advance notice of room entry will be given. University Housing employees are required to report any violations of this Contract, applicable law and/or UWM Policies, they observe when in your room.

Property can be seized and removed from your room when it constitutes an imminent danger or when its presence is in violation of the law or the Resident Handbook, when it is University-owned property, or when staff have evidence that an unauthorized pet is in the room. Law enforcement officers may enter your room and seize your property as permissible by law.

R. GOLD ACCOUNT

The Gold Account is a separate account from your residential meal plan, which is attached to your UWM Panther Student ID Card. Gold funds can be used for non-dining service purchases (i.e. vending, laundry, University Bookstore). This account is optional and is activated by submitting the Gold Account Contract to the Panther Card Office (Union 161). Deposits can be made at the Panther Card Office (Union 161), www.uwm.edu/panthercard, or through a Cash Value Center (CVC) in the laundry room of the Residence Halls.

You agree to pay University Housing the rates for the type of room accommodation with the official rates and payment schedule. The room rates printed here are the rates for the 2017 Summer Session. Summer charges will start to be posted on May 22, 2017. Contracts submitted after May 19 will have summer charges posted three to five business days after contract submission. Charges are due approximately two weeks after posting to your PAWS account.

You agree to pay for any damages to the building, including fire damage, and for damaged or missing furniture, lost property, or service costs caused by you to UWM Residence Halls because of your negligent or intentional actions. Where two or more residents occupy the same room/suite and responsibility for damage or loss in the room/suite cannot be ascertained by the University Housing, the cost of damage or loss will be divided and assessed equally between or among the residents of the room/suite. University Housing reserves the right to assess common area damage between residents of the community and/or hall.

Rank your room type preference by indicating 1 for your top choice and 2 for your second choice. All rooms have air conditioning and a kitchen.
