Twenty-five memoirs by noted directors, producers, actors, writers and cinematographers. Topics covered range widely and include theories of cinematography, production problems, minorities in film, the economics of filmmaking, the McCarthy era, the effects of television on the motion picture industry, etc. Among the memoirists are Tay Garnett, Howard Koch, Abraham Polonsky and Crane Wilbur.