This collection consists of a wide variety of materials covering the period 1949 to 1975. It includes translations from Red Guard serials, formal laws, statutes, lists and general accounts of Chinese Communist Party meetings, party circulars, directives and resolutions, analytical reports, secondary studies of China by foreign observers, general reference sources, and political and economic reports published in U.S. publications such as JPRS, Survey of the China Mainland Press, and Selections from China Mainland Magazines. Volume I contains a bibliography of Red Guard translations and a subject index. Volume II consists of bibliographical indexes for Party and government enactments, research and analysis reports, leadership information, and for provincial and municipal data. Volume II also has a subject index.

Description from the Library of Congress