Early American imprints, 1801-1819.
This collection, based on Ralph Shaw's and Richard Shoemaker's American Bibliography, continues Early American Imprints (based on Charles Evans' bibliography) and follows the chronological arrangement and numbering sequence of the Shaw-Shoemaker bibliography. Only non-serial titles are included and the material is in English. The collection covers a wide range of subjects and types of publications including many government documents. It contains more than 50,000 titles.

Description from the Library of Congress