Primary source material from Britain on the issue of the economic and political integration of Britain with the European Economic Community. The collection includes materials from single-interest pressure groups, important literature from multi-interest groups, relevant publications of political parties, and speeches and pamphlets of major politicians. Great efforts were made to ensure that groups of all shades of opinion were represented.

(Description from Library of Congress.)