Slavery Source Materials.
A collection of 441 books and pamphlets written before the Civil War on the subjects of African Americans, slavery, and abolition of slavery. Many are by black authors; all are in English but not all are by Americans. Included are speeches, sermons, slave narratives, essays, treatises, letters, poetry, and memoirs. For a complete titles list search PantherCat by “Series Title (exact).”

Description from the Library of Congress