Reproduces Central Intelligence Agency memos, reports, telegram texts, and letters dating from 1946 through 1976. Most of the items deal with aspects of Soviet policy or, less often, with aspects of the Soviet economy. Several items actually deal with other East European countries, often touching on their relations with the Soviet Union.

Description from the Library of Congress