Drunk Shakespeare

“We’ll teach you to drink deep ere you depart.”

Join us for a Panel Discussion on the merits or demerits of performing Shakespeare while intoxicated!

That’s right, Drunk Shakespeare. Apparently it’s become a thing, with Drunk Shakespeare societies popping up everywhere, including at least two in Milwaukee: Bard & Bourbon Theatre Co. and Boozy Bard Productions, members of which will serve as our guest panelists and performers (No! No intoxicants will actually be consumed or served!).

As usual, there will be performances, and audience members; original Shakespeare materials on display; and Shakespeare inspired food, drink (again, no alcohol), and Birthday Cake!
