ABOUT UWM
As Wisconsin’s premier public urban institution, UW-Milwaukee enjoys a growing international reputation for excellence in research, teaching and community engagement.

Since 1965, the College of Nursing has developed a tradition of excellence. The College is dedicated to providing academic programs of the highest quality that are at the forefront of nursing. Faculty are widely recognized for achievements and innovations.

ACADEMICS
Bachelor of Science
RN to BS Completion
Global Studies - Health Track
Master of Nursing
Master of Sustainable Peacebuilding
RN to MN Completion
Doctor of Philosophy
Doctor of Nursing Practice

CERTIFICATES
Applied Gerontology
Clinical Nurse Specialist (Post Master)
Global Health
Family Nurse Practitioner (Post Master)
Health Professional Education
Trauma Informed Care
Spanish for Health Professionals

RESEARCH FOCAL AREAS
Self-Management
Geriatric Health
Global Health
Community-Engaged Health

CENTERS/INSTITUTES
Center for Global Health Equity
Center for Nursing History
Harriet H. Werley Center for Nursing Research and Evaluation
Institute for Urban Health Partnership
Self-management Science Center

FACULTY
21 Tenure-track
25% of Faculty are Fellows of the American Academy of Nursing (FAAN)
Faculty actively engaged in research and practice

COMMUNITY
168 Clinical Agency Sites
2 Nurse managed community nursing centers
Over 300 community partners

ALUMNI
Over 9,000 alumni

NATION’S 1ST
ASYNCHRONOUS
ONLINE NURSING
PHD PROGRAM

TOP 15%
U.S. News & World Report consistently ranks the College in the top 15 percent of nursing schools with graduate programs.

SCHOLARSHIP/ACCESS
Over $500,000 in scholarships awarded in 2016
Only state program with Nurse Faculty Loan Program

ENROLLMENT
1,200 Undergraduate students
300 Graduate students

20% MALE STUDENTS

Website    >    www.nursing.uwm.edu
Phone      >    414.229.5047
Facebook >    facebook.com/uwmnursing

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
UWMILWAUKEE