Spend the summer reading the most entertaining graphic novels from around the world. From superhero adventures and intellectual mysteries to traumatic history and modern quests for identity, these texts combine word and image to give us the most innovative new stories of our generation. Readings will include Batman: The Dark Knight Returns, Maus, Persepolis, Epileptic, Metropolis, and more. No previous training in literature or foreign languages required.