Fax Cover Sheet

To: Jean Creighton, Planetarium Director
   UW-Milwaukee Physics Department
   414-229-5589 fax
   414-229-4961 voice
   stargaze@uwm.edu

Instructor’s Name ____________________________________________

Contact Info (fax, voice, email) __________________________________

School __________________________________________ Grade ________

Today’s Date ________________________________________________

Date of Planetarium Visit ______________________________________

Instructions: Poll your students verbally using the included Pre-Visit Questionnaire that follows. Count the number of students who agree and disagree, and write the numbers in the spaces provided.

Please send this information to Jean Creighton at least 24 hours prior to your visit or hand it to her on the day of. Students’ responses will be used to tailor the theater show for their needs. Use the fax, voicemail, or email address provided above.

Please be sure to include your contact information.

Thank you!
Pre-visit Questionnaire

“What do you think?” You may wish to give your class the opportunity to discuss these questions in groups before collecting their responses.

Agree  Disagree

_____  _____  The Earth’s distance from the Sun causes the Seasons.

_____  _____  There are two types of planets in the Solar System.

_____  _____  Pluto is the ninth planet.

_____  _____  In Milwaukee there are stars we can see all year round.

_____  _____  Stars are being formed out in the Universe as you read this.

_____  _____  The Sun will burn up all of its Hydrogen in the next 5,000 years.

Comments (include an extra sheet, if necessary)

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________