Education

The UWM School of Continuing Education has hired Jayna Hintz as the new program coordinator for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. In her most recent position, Hintz worked as the Curator of Education for the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum in Wausau. She is a member of the National Art Education Association, Wisconsin Art Education Association, American Association of Art Therapists, and Wisconsin Association of Art Therapists. Hintz earned a MA in Art Therapy from Saint Mary-of-the-Woods College, Indiana, and a BS in Fine Arts from UW-Madison.

The UWM School of Continuing Education (SCE) recently selected Angela Kelber as an Outreach Specialist for the Department of Human Services with a focus on youth in out-of-home care. She previously served as the Career Services and Business Development Regional Director at the Lincoln Educational Services in Boston. Kelber has worked extensively in career services, marketing, training and project management for large universities in the US and Brazil. She is earning a second master’s degree in Administrative Leadership and became a certified Master Trainer at SCE.

The UWM School of Continuing Education (SCE) has hired Pamela Kramer as an Account Executive for Marketing. Kramer formerly worked as a marketing coordinator for Kenall Lighting of Kenosha. She also was the owner of Kramer Creatives LLC and PLK Reps LLC. Kramer worked at UW-Parkside at the Center for Community Partnership (CCP) where she marketed continuing education for teachers. She earned a bachelor’s degree in Business Management and Communications from Concordia University Wisconsin.

About the School of Continuing Education: (SCE) is the largest provider of noncredit continuing education in Southeastern Wisconsin, with over 15,000 participants, more than 1,000 programs and 600 practitioner instructors.
