Kids and teens have summer fun at UWM Discovery Camp

WHEN/WHAT/WHO: Fri., Aug. 7, is a good time this summer to get a glimpse of the many bright faces at College for Kids (CFK) and College for Teens (CFT) at UWM’s Kenwood campus. For 35 years, the popular hands-on enrichment program has drawn inquisitive students entering grades K5-12 who have high academic potential, motivation and talent. One- and two-week classes in Creative Arts, Humanities/Social Sciences, Languages & Cultures, Math & Computers, and Science are taught by UW System faculty or highly qualified and experienced instructors. More than ____ children and teens have enrolled in over 200? classes this summer. Over the years, more than 25,000 students have participated.

VISUALLY APPEALING SELECTIONS: To view our complete schedule, visit www.sce-kids.uwm.edu. Among our top picks for the day are Rocketry, Up, Up and Away, K5-2 and gr. 3-5; Jazz for Musical Theatre, gr. 9-12; Beams & Bridges, K5-2; Exploring the World of Horticulture, gr. 6-8; Crime Solvers, gr. 9-12; Advanced Chemistry, gr. 6-8; and Building with Paper, gr. 6-12.

PHOTOGRAPHY AND VIDEOGRAPHY OPTIONS: After noting the class(es) you would like to visit, please contact College for Kids at cfkids@uwm.edu or at 414-229-6364. The CFK/CFT staff can then assist you with room numbers and procedures.

About the School of Continuing Education: (SCE) is the largest provider of noncredit continuing education in Southeastern Wisconsin, with nearly 20,000 participants, 1,500 programs and 600 practitioner instructors. Our state-of-the-art classrooms and conference services are located in downtown Milwaukee – the heart of the city’s business and commercial district. SCE is one of 14 schools and colleges at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.
