Education

The UWM School of Continuing Education recently selected Megan Shea as its University Conference Coordinator. Megan has four years of progressive event and facility management experience in a professional community education environment. She regularly coordinates multiple high profile conferences, meetings and continuing education seminars for 50,000 square feet of innovative classroom and meeting space. Megan holds a Bachelor of Arts in Community Education from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

About the School of Continuing Education: As one of 14 schools and colleges that comprise the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, SCE offers participants an assortment of over 1,500 programs and 600 practitioner instructors. With nearly 20,000 participants each year, SCE is the largest provider of noncredit continuing education in southeastern Wisconsin. Its mission is to generate knowledge and learning opportunities for those interested in developing professional skills in business, technology and human services, enriching their lives with classes in arts and humanities or for those who are simply looking for a new intellectual challenge.
