Education

The UWM School of Continuing Education has hired Jana Hintz as the new program coordinator for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. In her most recent position, Jayna worked as the Curator of Education for the Leigh Yawkey Woodson Art Museum in Wausau.

Now, Jayna initiates, plans, implements, and evaluates quality continuing education curriculum with a broad focus that appeals to the Osher membership.

She is a member of the National Art Education Association, Wisconsin Art Education Association, American Association of Art Therapists, and Wisconsin Association of Art Therapists.

Jayna earned a MA in Art Therapy from Saint Mary-of-the Woods College, Indiana, and a BS in Fine Arts from UW-Madison.

The UWM School of Continuing Education (SCE) recently selected Angela Kelbers as a graphic designer for its marketing department. Sarah has demonstrated expertise designing for on- and offline media. Prior to taking her position at SCE, Sarah spent over 15 years doing print, email, web and package design for clients including Wisconsin Lutheran College, Kraft Foods, Miller Brewing and Jockey International.

Erik Peterson also was hired by the School of Continuing Education (SCE), as an associate graphic designer. Well versed in designing for a broad range of both new and traditional media, Erik has creative, technical and analytical business skills which he acquired from his years as a design and marketing coordinator at Piranio Fitness Systems. His expertise also includes SEO, WordPress, Adwords/PPC and social media.

###
About the School of Continuing Education: (SCE) is the largest provider of noncredit continuing education in Southeastern Wisconsin, with over 15,000 participants, more than 1,000 programs and 600 practitioner instructors.
