Welcome to the 112th University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Commencement.

This is the day to recognize our graduating students’ academic effort and remarkable personal commitment. As you look around, you can appreciate our need for the size of the UWM Panther Arena. Gathered together, we look every bit like the university that enrolls more Wisconsin residents than any other.

As we celebrate our graduates, we should also look to them with a great sense of hope. For some, the work of a university and how it impacts students is viewed as complete when students conclude their studies. This is not so at UWM. This is an age of collaboration and lifelong discovery. UWM students, alumni, faculty and staff are increasingly involved in partnerships with area businesses, industries, community and non-profit organizations, and other educational institutions. These collaborations lead to – and create – more jobs throughout the region for our students after they graduate. You’ve set the bar higher for new levels of cooperation, innovation and entrepreneurship. An academic degree brings newfound opportunities and benefits to both the recipient and the wider community.

On behalf of the UWM faculty and staff, I congratulate all of today’s graduating students. They are the first members of our Class of 2015. When combined with those who will follow them in December, the UWM Class of 2015 will be well in excess of 5,000 students.

To all our guests here to witness today’s event, I thank you for supporting your adult child, relative, spouse, partner, or friend. And to all our graduates, I offer my best wishes in all of your endeavors. Please keep us apprised of your many successes.

Best regards and congratulations,

Mark A. Mone
Chancellor
The Story of the UWM Seal

Official ceremonial activities and actions of the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee nearly always make use of the UWM seal. It can be found on all significant university documents. The key elements of the UWM corporate seal are the university’s logo in the center and the years above the word “Milwaukee.”

The logo was redesigned in 1999 to more distinctly represent the university. Distinguishing elements of the redesigned logo include the different typefaces used for the letters “UW” and “M,” which reflect the diversity inherent at UW-Milwaukee, and the overlapping of the “W” and the “M” to show the connection between the University of Wisconsin System and Milwaukee’s university. The two wavy banners below the letters “UWM” show movement and suggest a continuum of education throughout one’s life. The banners also represent waves and emphasize how Milwaukee and the campus are located near water. The nimbus, appearing behind the logo, symbolizes educational enlightenment.

The three years noted in the corporate seal are 1849, 1885 and 1956.

1849 represents the era that higher education began in this state. Wisconsin became the 30th state in the union on May 29, 1848. Less than two months later, on July 26, the University of Wisconsin was established under provisions in the new state constitution. One of the initial steps to prepare students for university was enrolling young people in preparatory classes. On February 5, 1849, 17 boys arrived for preparatory classes in space borrowed from the Madison Female Academy. This date is referred to in Wisconsin education as Founders Day. Then, in autumn 1850, the first University of Wisconsin freshman class assembled in Madison for first-year instruction as part of a four-year college curriculum.

1885 denotes the beginnings of public higher education in Milwaukee at the Milwaukee State Normal School. The Wisconsin legislature in 1880 approved expanding higher education by establishing nine normal schools around the state. The first students in Milwaukee were admitted in 1885. In the beginning, curriculum was limited to a two-year teacher-training program. As its educational mission evolved, the school’s name changed. It became the Milwaukee State Teachers College in 1927 and the Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee, in 1951.

1956 signals the beginning of the modern era of public higher education in Milwaukee. During the late 1940s and early 1950s, many proposals to expand higher education offerings in Milwaukee were considered. The successful proposal approved in 1955 combined the previously mentioned Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee, and the Milwaukee office of the University Extension Center, an auxiliary of the University of Wisconsin in Madison. The new university was considered a part of the University of Wisconsin and classes at the new University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee began in the fall of 1956.
A Quick History of UWM

The name has changed—several times—but the roots of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee go back to 1885 when Wisconsin established the Milwaukee Normal School, a two-year teacher’s college.

Some important dates:

1885 Milwaukee Normal School opens to train teachers in downtown Milwaukee at 18th & Wells
1892 University of Wisconsin offers day and evening classes in Milwaukee
1909 With the completion of a new Milwaukee Normal School building (today’s Mitchell Hall) the campus moves to its present location
1920 The University of Wisconsin Extension Division, formed in 1907, takes over responsibility for UW instruction in Milwaukee
1927 Normal school becomes Milwaukee State Teachers College with 4-year degree
1928 UW Extension opens Milwaukee Center downtown
1951 Milwaukee State Teachers College becomes Wisconsin State College with liberal arts degrees
1956 WSC & UW Milwaukee Extension merge to form UWM
1961 The 8.6-acre Milwaukee-Downer Seminary site, including 3 buildings, is purchased
1963 UWM offers first PhD degree, in mathematics
1964 UWM buys Milwaukee-Downer College buildings, expands campus
1965 UWM purchases the 6.3-acre Milwaukee University School campus
1970 Three residence towers, collectively called Sandburg Halls, open for student housing
1988 UW System designates eight Centers of Excellence at UWM
1995 Division of Outreach and Continuing Education Extension (now the School of Continuing Education) moves to new offices in the downtown Plankinton Building
2000 UWM awards diploma to 125,000th graduate; UWM named among top 102 public doctoral research universities in nation
2001 Governor announces honors academy at UWM
2002 Helene Zelazo Center for the Performing Arts opens. Fourth tower added to Sandburg Residence Halls.
2005 Men’s basketball team advances to Sweet 16 in NCAA Tournament.
2006 $100-million Campaign for UWM announced. Pavilion athletics complex and Kenilworth Square mixed-use student housing facility open. Men’s and women’s basketball teams both advance to NCAA Tournament.
2008 Campaign for UWM is completed more than a year early with $125 million pledged to the university.
2010 The School of Freshwater Sciences and Zilber School of Public Health become the first new academic schools established at UWM since the 1960s. UWM acquires the former Columbia Hospital campus: 11 acres; seven buildings with more than 800,000 gross square feet of space; and about 900 parking spaces.

By the turn of the century, the school had expanded to offer programs in the liberal arts and science as well as education. By the ’30’s, the school, now called Milwaukee State Teachers College, was a national leader in innovative teacher education, with 1,500 students. A student from the 1916-17 academic year, Golda Meir, became prime minister of Israel from 1969-1974.

After World War II, the College was authorized to award four-year bachelor degrees and in 1951 became Wisconsin State College, Milwaukee. Five years later it combined with the Milwaukee Extension Center, which had been the local outreach program of the University of Wisconsin in Milwaukee. Together, the two institutions became the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, with its focus on academic research, teaching and community service.

Since its founding, UWM has expanded its programs so that today its 14 schools and colleges offer 94 undergraduate programs, 53 masters and 32 doctoral degrees.
-chanCellor’s Medallion-

The medallion used in today’s ceremony was commissioned by the UW-Milwaukee Alumni Association. The medallion is a representation of UWM’s seal, based on a rendering by alumnus John Thiel of Thiel Design.

The Meaning of Academic Regalia

Academic gowns were worn as early as the 12th century. Their primary purpose then was to protect the wearer against the elements. When accepted styles of dress began to change in the 16th century, those in the legal and medical professions as well as scholars in the universities retained the traditional dress of gowns and hoods. The origin of the cap is unclear.

Styles and colors had no particular meaning until 1895 when an “Intercollegiate Code” established design and color criteria. The bachelor’s gown has long, pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed. The master’s gown has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist; the rear part of its oblong shape is square cut, the front part has an arc cut away. The gown may be worn open or closed. The doctor’s gown has velvet down the front with three bars of the same velvet across the sleeves. It may be worn open or closed.

The academic hood is the visual representation of the academic degree. The level of the degree is indicated by the length of the hood and the width of its velvet edging, with the doctoral hood being the largest. The color of the lining of the hood denotes the school conferring the degree, the color of the velvet binding denotes the field of study. The color denoting the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee is gold, dark blue is the color denoting philosophy; therefore, all recipients of the Doctor of Philosophy degree (Ph.D.) at UWM wear hoods lined with gold and trimmed in dark blue velvet.

Other trim colors that you may observe among the masters candidates and the faculty are:

- BLUE VIOLET—Architecture
- WHITE—Art
- BROWN—Art/Dance/Drama
- BEIGE—Business Administration
- LIGHT BLUE—Education
- ORANGE—Engineering/Computer Science
- PEACOCK—Human Resources and Labor Relations
- LEMON—Library & Information Science
- PINK—Music
- APRICOT—Nursing
- SALMON—Public Health
- GOLD—Science
- CITRON—Social Work/Criminal Justice

Honors: The gold cord, worn by some of the bachelor’s degree candidates, identifies those students who have been awarded Commencement Honors for high academic achievement throughout their career at UWM. An asterisk (*) is directly after the names of bachelor’s degree candidates awarded Commencement Honors in this program.

The pewter-colored stole recognizes undergraduate students receiving the Honor’s Degree. This special diploma is awarded in recognition of outstanding academic achievement to students who have completed the requirements of the University Honors College and achieved an overall grade point average of 3.5 or above.

The red, white, and blue cord is being worn by our veterans and military service members.

BLACK CEREMONY COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

RICHARD C. COX
Retired Executive Director
Neighborhood House Milwaukee

When one thinks of a leader, an advocate for the community, and a UWM Panther through and through, the name Richard C. Cox comes to mind. As a life-long resident of the city of Milwaukee, he has worked tirelessly over the past 40 years to improve community conditions and the quality of life for all citizens. His footprint can be felt in his extensive work with area nonprofits, the criminal justice community, and his ties to UWM. Richard earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee in 1974, where he also earned a Certificate of Public Administration. He was a graduate of the 148th Session of the FBI National Academy. He also served as Chairman of the Milwaukee Fire and Police Commission, and served as Superintendent of the Milwaukee County House of Corrections for eight years.

His extensive background in law enforcement and corrections formed a strong foundation in understanding the dynamics of factors contributing to criminal behavior. With a passion for change, he became an advocate for community-based treatment as a viable alternative to incarceration through his work as Assistant Executive Director of The Benedict Center. Most recently, as the now retired Executive Director of The Neighborhood House of Milwaukee, he oversaw programs designed to strengthen families, prevent community violence, and create prosperity-building opportunities for at-risk youth. His vision and high level of commitment has been credited for making a difference in the lives of many during troubled times.

Richard’s contributions to the community have spanned the social and corporate sectors of the region. One of his most acclaimed achievements was his participation as a Board member of the Southeastern Wisconsin Professional Baseball Park District and his service as a member of the Construction committee of Milwaukee’s landmark Miller Park. In that role, he also served as Chair of the Participation committee with responsibility for the oversight of $100 million dollars in projects for women and minority-owned businesses. Soon after, he became Vice President of Operations for the Brewers Baseball Club. These accomplishments were nurtured through a commitment to sports that emerged as a student at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, where he was named Most Valuable Player twice, held a record as a four-year letter winner, and was named to the UWM All Century Basketball team.

His Panther pride knows no bounds. He was the first African American to serve as President of the UWM Alumni Association board. He has served on university committees in various roles such as a member of the UWM Athletic Board of Directors, a member of numerous Search and Screen committees, including those for Chancellor, a member of the UWM Chancellor’s Commission on Public Engagement, and a member of the UWM Strategic Planning Core Team. He has been recognized by the University with the UWM Distinguished Alumni Award and the UWM Academic Staff Outstanding Volunteer Service Award.

When asked, Richard states that he is grateful to UWM for many things – but most importantly, for the opportunity to meet his beautiful wife Terry there whom he married in 1973. And, of note, the following year he brought his daughter, Ricki, home from the hospital on the morning of his UWM graduation.

Now retired with three children and five grandchildren, Richard continues to be recognized for his career-long dedication to the Milwaukee community. In 2014, Mayor Tom Barrett proclaimed July 30th as Richard C. Cox day in the city of Milwaukee.

IRENE BISHOP GOGGANS
Ethnographer and Community Historian of African American Life
Honorary Doctor of Community History
Escorted by: Dean Alan Shoho, School of Education

IRENE BISHOP GOGGANS is interested in dates and details unlike most people around her. As a community historian, she has often said, “I don’t know everyone, but I’d like to meet them.” For more than 70 years in Milwaukee, Irene has met many people, especially in Milwaukee’s African American community, and has kept records of their accomplishments and happenings. To date, she has collected and assembled more than 300 scrapbooks archiving events, people, places and things pertaining to the African American experiences in Dyersburg, Tennessee, and Milwaukee, Wisconsin- and their connections around the country. Her collections tell the story of Bronzeville, the neighborhood that she was a part of for so many years.

Irene Bishop was born in the west Tennessee town of Dyersburg, about 80 miles north of Memphis. She grew up in the segregated South and was keenly aware of the disparities between facilities for blacks and whites, and how news about black people was often under-reported or missing from the newspaper. Nevertheless, she considered her upbringing a nurturing one, thanks to loving parents, siblings, teachers, her church and a nurturing African-American community. She was educated in the Dyersburg Public Schools and attended Blanche K. Bruce High School in Dyersburg until she was 16. After her father John Hall Bishop, a master mechanic, was refused a job, the family decided to relocate to Milwaukee, joining family members who came in 1927.

At age 16, Irene and her family returned permanently to Milwaukee September 18, 1942, and she promptly enrolled in Lincoln Jr./Sr. High School, graduating in 1943. She attended Milwaukee State Teachers College (now UW-Milwaukee) for 1 year, and then switched to clerical courses at Milwaukee Area Technical College, which she completed in 1946. She met Pat Goggans, a postal worker. They were married on May 24, 1947 and shared 36 years together until his death on March 17, 1983.

Irene worked in various jobs through her career, including a clerk with the Selective Service System; worker for the U. S. Census Bureau; clerk for the Internal Revenue Service; and worker for the Milwaukee Election Commission. She was active with the LaFollette School PTA, and was employed as a paraprofessional with Milwaukee Public Schools from 1967 to 1988, when she retired.

Irene has been a member of St. Matthew Christian Methodist Episcopal Church for seventy-three years. Her involvements includes Sunday School Teacher, missionary officer, Stewardess, church historian, director of board of Christian Education, vacation Bible school teacher, and chairperson of numerous church and other community committees.

Regardless of her career paths and activities, Irene considers local history her true calling. Because of her wisdom and data from her 300 volume historical collection, Irene Bishop Goggans is the primary consultant and resource for UW-Milwaukee faculty as well as other individuals conducting research about the African-American Community in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Finally, Irene Goggans is a participant (history presenter) in most prominent African American community events.
CATHERINE A. JACOBSON, FHFMA, CPA
President and Chief Executive Officer
Froedtert Health

Honorary Doctor of Healthcare Leadership

Escort by: Interim Dean Paula Rhyner, College of Health Sciences

CATHERINE A. JACOBSON serves as president and CEO of Froedtert Health, a $1.7 billion regional health care system based in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. In partnership with the Medical College of Wisconsin, Froedtert and the Medical College of Wisconsin’s health network consists of eastern Wisconsin’s only academic medical center, two community hospitals, a community physician practice with over 240 physicians and Medical College Physicians, the adult multi-specialty practice plan with over 750 clinical providers. In 2014, the health network saw almost 38,000 inpatient admissions, over 900,000 outpatient visits and 2.4 million physician office encounters.

Jacobson joined Froedtert Health in 2010 as executive vice president of finance and strategy, chief financial officer and chief strategy officer. She was promoted in 2011, becoming President and in 2012, she assumed the CEO role. Prior to joining Froedtert Health, Jacobson spent 22 years at Rush University Medical Center in Chicago in various leadership roles.

Jacobson served as the voluntary national Chair of the Healthcare Financial Management Association (HFMA) during the 2009-10 term. A member of HFMA since 1989, her involvement with HFMA includes serving on the national Board of Directors from 2004-2010 and the Principles & Practices Board from 1995-2001 serving as chair during 2000-01.

Jacobson currently serves on the American Hospital Association’s Section for Metropolitan Hospitals Governing Council for a three year term ending in 2017.

Current board appointments include Mercy Health of Cincinnati (formerly Catholic Health Partners), Wisconsin Hospital Association, United Way of Greater Milwaukee, The Milwaukee Health Care Partnership (Chair), Integrated Health Network of Wisconsin (Chair), Blood Center of Wisconsin, United Hospital System, Kenosha, Wisconsin, the Milwaukee Regional Medical Center (Chair), the Greater Milwaukee Committee and Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce. She also serves on the UW-Milwaukee College of Health Sciences Dean’s Advisory Board.

Jacobson’s recognitions include Becker’s Hospital Review 2014 Health Care Leaders Award, and one of Becker’s 24 Leading Women to Know in Healthcare. She was recognized as a Women of Influence by the Milwaukee Business Journal in 2013 and received an honorable mention as Executive of the Year in 2014.

Jacobson is a member of Healthcare Financial Management Association, the American College of Healthcare Executives, the Healthcare Institute and Healthcare Executives Study Society. She is also a member of the Chicago Network, an organization for women executives, and TEMPO and Professional Dimensions, two Milwaukee-based women’s leadership organizations.

Jacobson is a Fellow of HFMA and a Certified Public Accountant. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Bradley University, Peoria, Illinois.
