LOOKING FOR SOCIAL SERVICE PROVIDERS WHO WORK WITH FEMALES WHO HAVE HISTORIES OF PROSTITUTION/SEX TRAFFICKING

Volunteers are needed to participate in a study about social service providers’ perspectives and experiences working with women who have histories of being prostituted/sex trafficked. The purpose of this study are to: 1) understand the prostitution/sex trafficking experiences of women; 2) identify the service needs of women who have histories of prostitution/sex trafficking; and 3) develop best practice standards on how professionals effectively engage and work with women who have histories of sex trafficking in order to enhance the capacity of professionals working with these women.

I am asking for:
- 1 – 2 hours of your time to complete an in-depth interview
- I will come to you

This interview will cover:
- Demographics (e.g. age, race, sex, current job title); views regarding prostitution/sex trafficking; service needs of women with histories of prostitution/sex trafficking, and reflection questions regarding healing and recovery

Volunteers must be:
- Work in some capacity with females who have histories of prostitution/sex trafficking
- 18 years or older
- English speaking
- Voluntarily agree to participate

You will receive:
- $25.00 for completing the interview
- A final report of the findings from the study

If you are interested in participating, please contact Joan Blakey at email (blakey@uwm.edu) or call me (773-972-7703) to set-up an interview.

THANK YOU!!
