

CARLOS NÚÑEZ

PERFORMANCE & DISCUSSION

*Free and Open to the Public
Refreshments Will Be Served*

CONNECTIONS: CELTIC & LATIN MUSIC

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10, 2012

11:30AM – 1:00PM

HELENE ZELAZO CENTER, ROOM 171

Carlos Núñez is one of Spain's most revered artists, known as an undisputed master of the Galician bagpipes. His music draws on influences that range from ancient and contemporary Celtic (with a unique Galician swing) to Medieval Galician-Portuguese, and also combines the sounds and styles of Cuba, Brazil, Argentina, and the United States.

SPONSORED BY:

DEPARTMENT OF SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE
CENTER FOR CELTIC STUDIES
PECK SCHOOL OF THE ARTS, MUSIC DEPARTMENT
SIGMA DELTA PI, HISPANIC HONOR SOCIETY

College of Letters & Science