

UWM PORTUGUESE LECTURE SERIES

ORGANIZED by:

UWM DEPARTMENT OF SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE

Spring 2012

Homeland and/or Diaspora? The Cultural Politics of Being Jewish in Brazil

Dr. Nelson Vieira, Brown University

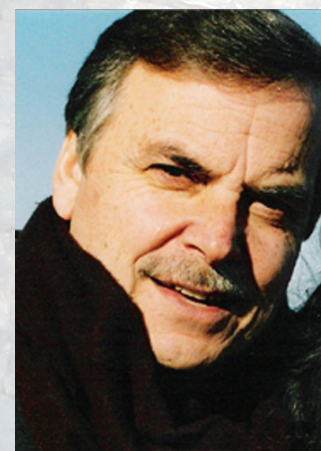

February 22, 7 PM, Golda Meir Library Conference Center (4th floor)

Dr. Nelson Vieira's talk is co-sponsored by the the Sam and Helen Stahl Center for Jewish Studies, the UWM Golda Meir Library, and the UWM Jewish Latin-American Collection Associates.

On Lusofonia –What It Could Mean in Postcolonial Times

Dr. Onésimo Almeida (Brown University)

March 28, 3:30 PM, Lubar Hall N120

Regarding Libaninho: The Spectacle of Homosexuality in Eça de Queirós's The Crime of Father Amaro

Dr. Anna Klobucka (University of Massachusetts, Dartmouth)

April 18, 3:30 PM, Greene Hall 148

The Portuguese Lectures Series is co-sponsored by CLACS, the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies at UWM. For more information about the lecture series or the Portuguese program at UWM, contact Professor Ricardo Vasconcelos (ricardov@uwm.edu)

College of Letters & Science