

Conversatorio de Letras Colombianas

TWO TALKS BY COLOMBIAN SCHOLARS

NOVEMBER 19TH, 2012 - 3:30-5:00 PM

CURTIN HALL - ROOM 175

"La enseñanza de la lengua: una experiencia total"

DR. ENRIQUE CABEZA

Dr. Enrique Cabeza Barrios is from Bogotá, Colombia and specializes in Spanish linguistics, dialectology, and Spanish-language teaching methodology. The author of 29 internationally renowned grammar textbooks, Dr. Cabeza has been invited as a special consultant by several countries. He has served as Dean of the College of Humanities in the Universidad Libre in Bogotá and as a consultant for the Colombian Ministry of Education from 1982-2003 .

"Otras escrituras literarias: el diario, la crónica, el testimonio y el minicuento"

DR. GABRIEL PABÓN

Dr. Pabón's fields are Spanish linguistics, semiotics, narrative, literature, and creative writing. A most accomplished writer, he is the author of 13 books (novels and short stories). His latest novels Barrio hereje (2011) and En el nombre del señor (2011) have become national bestsellers in Colombia. In 2001, Pabón won the International Juan Rulfo Award for Short Stories, sponsored by the French government.

Sponsored by: Department of Spanish & Portuguese,
Center for Latin American & Caribbean Studies, and Sigma Delta Pi