

<h2 style="text-align: center;">Thursday Workshop Descriptions</h2>	Location
Entrepreneurship: Build a Business ( 3 E N P ) During this panel, hear about the power of entrepreneurship and the opportunity it provides as well as the creative freedom that allows you to shape your own life.	Wisconsin Room (2nd floor)
I'm NOT a Businessman, I'm a Business, Man ( S M 5 5 ) On IG, SC, Twi, etc., how are you creating and branding yourself on social media? Learn from the most followed man in Wisconsin: Rome!	Union Cinema (2nd floor)
Black and Brown Faces in White Places ( B 2 F S ) This panel features the experiences of Black &amp; Brown young men who made their way, and defined success on their own terms. Learn how they succeeded and make your way.	Fireside Lounge (1st floor)
The Power of Mentorship ( N O L S ) This workshop is fast paced and dynamic, led by multiple facilitators who are positive men in the community and will leave young men forever armed with knowledge on how to identify and understand the value of positive relationships. Memories to last a lifetime.	Union 191 (1st floor)
Not Just Surviving but Thriving at a Predominately White School ( T P W I ) Led by young Black men from Wauwatosa West. They are reimagining the narrative each month within a summit led by Dr. Robert Smith that focuses on their well-being and social emotional learning at a predominantly white high school. The reimagined narrative puts Black boys at the forefront of creating their own narratives instead of being taught someone else's expectation or dream.	Union 240 (2nd floor)
Community Resources ( C R 1 7 ) Eight (8) different community-based resources are available to young men during this session. The young men will be engaged in conversation about their present and thoughts about the future.	Union 280 (2nd floor)
Maneuvering the Blue/Black Line ( M B 2 L ) This workshop will present information on how to obtain and maintain jobs in Law Enforcement through education, work experience, certifications, requirements, hiring process and disqualifiers. Will also feature a Q/A session on Police and community relations.	Union 250 (2nd floor)
Know Your Rights in Law Enforcement Encounters ( K Y R 5 ) There is a clear need for better police-community relations and accountability in Milwaukee. This workshop will teach young men their rights, responsibilities, and how to address their concerns and options.	Union 260 (2nd floor)
Real Talk ( R T 4 4 ) Facilitated by a graduate of Vincent, this session is about young men by young men. In this workshop, young men have the opportunity to talk about the topics at the front of their minds freely.	Union 198 (1st floor)
We Gone Be Alright ( A C E S ) This session will help young men find triumph in their tragedy, make adjustments and not excuses. Young men will engage in self-reflection, writing, engaging conversations, restorative practices, spoken-word and motivational speaking that talks to the issues they face daily.	Union 183 (1st floor)
Replacing a Negative Self Image ( I M G 3 ) This workshop will give the participants an opportunity to: Think about how they experience anger and identify the roles anger has played in their life, explore beliefs about image of black boys and how the stereotypes re relevant in today's society	Union 181 (1st floor)
Money Matters ( F L $ $ ) The purpose of this workshop is to get students thinking about why money matters. It will examine the difference between wants &amp; needs, predatory lenders, where you're going to keep your money. Many financial institutions have similar services and products. It's important to make the right decision to meet all your banking needs.	Union 179 (1st floor)