

A Conversation with Maryam Durani and Kathleen Dunn

Escaping Afghanistan - One Woman's Story

Thursday, May 5th, 2022
3:30-5:00 with reception to follow

American Geographical Society Library

UWM Golda Meir Library
Third Floor East Wing
2311 Hartford Ave.

Registration required: This event is free and open to the public.

If the QR code to register does not work, please go to <https://tinyurl.com/sjyh25hp>

Maryam Durani was born a refugee in Iran. She moved to her family's native country, Afghanistan, when she was 18. She came to Milwaukee as a refugee in November of 2021. In 2012, Durani was named by Time Magazine as one of the 100 Most Influential People in the World and in the same year was also the recipient of the U.S. State Department's "International Women of Courage Award."

Kathleen Dunn is a retired radio host. Her interview programs spanned 42 years, 24 years at Wisconsin Public Radio and 18 years at WTMJ. She is currently helping refugee families in Milwaukee and visiting schools, assisted living homes, hospitals and many other places with her trained therapy dog Finn.

Sponsors

- UWM - Division of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
- Institute of World Affairs

Cosponsors

- English Language Academy
- Women and Gender Studies
- Cultures and Communities Program
- Center for Global Health Equity - UWM College of Nursing
- Institute for Systems Change and Peacebuilding
- Masters of Sustainable Peacebuilding Program
- Center for International Education

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
UWMILWAUKEE