UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MILWAUKEE

Chancellor Mone Welcomes New Students To Campus

Chancellor Mark A. Mone, his cabinet and the academic deans welcomed UWM's Class of 2019 to campus this week during the annual University Welcome. The program, which took place Tuesday morning on the lawn of Mitchell Hall, encouraged students to commit to success and get involved both at UWM and throughout the community. READ MORE

Helping Your Student Survive The First Six Weeks

The first six weeks of school might well turn out to be the most challenging for your student. They'll be adapting to the academic and social rigors of college while also learning to manage their own time and make good choices. You can play a role in helping your student through the first weeks of school by following some simple tips for keeping them on track. READ MORE

What is the UWM Speakers Bureau?

The UWM Speakers Bureau is an outreach opportunity made possible by volunteer speakers from among the faculty, staff and alumni who teach, conduct research, study and work at UWM. Our speakers enjoy sharing their expertise and positively impacting the community. The UWM Speakers Bureau is facilitated by External Relations within University Relations and Communications.

How do I become a UWM Speaker?
