

JOSEPH J. ZILBER
School of Public Health

Undergraduate Options in Public Health

A Presentation for the Advisor and Counselor Network

Darcie K.G. Warren, Graduate Program Manager

What to expect from this presentation

- ▶ Listing of undergraduate courses in public health
- ▶ Brief descriptions of course content and who might be interested
- ▶ Answer any questions

Link to PH Undergraduate Course Information

- ▶ <http://uwm.edu/publichealth/undergraduate-courses/>

PH 101: Introduction to Public Health

- ▶ Summer 2016 session, Offered online
- ▶ Fall 2016 sections
In-person on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 11:00a - 12:15p
- ▶ Students in this course will earn Social Sciences GER credits.

PH 303: Climate Change, the Environment, and Human Health

- ▶ Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:00 - 4:15 pm.
- ▶ Taught by Michael Laiosa, Associate Professor of Environmental Health
- ▶ Students in this course will earn Natural Sciences GER credits.

PH 319: Introduction to Health Disparities

- ▶ Mondays and Wednesdays from 3:30 - 4:45 pm.
- ▶ No prerequisites
- ▶ Taught by Emmanuel Ngui, Associate Professor of Community and Behavioral Health Promotion and UWM's 2010 Health Disparities Hire
- ▶ Opportunity for seminar style class that discusses issues affecting Milwaukee communities with relevance to many careers

PH 306: Adolescent Health and Development

- ▶ Typically offered in the Spring
- ▶ Students in this course will earn Social Sciences GER credits.
- ▶ Prerequisite: Sophomore standing.
- ▶ Taught by Paul Florsheim, Professor of Community and Behavioral Health Promotion
- ▶ Opportunity for seminar style class that discusses issues affecting traditional-aged undergrads, including mental health, trauma, substance abuse, sexuality, etc.

Questions?