Enrollment Setup for U/G and New CGS Courses: Seth Zlotocha, Kristin Hildebrandt, & Brian Hinshaw

- Policy changes
 - Accelerated bachelor's/master's policy
 - Widened the door for UGRD enrollment in GRAD classes for graduate credit
 - 6 credits "forward-counting"
 - UW Restructuring
 - Creation of distinct AAS curriculum that parallels bachelor degree curriculum
 - UWM courses offered on new branch campuses
 - Differing tuition levels between AAS and bachelor

- Career-based enrollment restrictions
 - Effective Fall 19, default settings in PAWS will restrict enrollment based on career

Associate (ASOC)	Bachelor (UGRD)	Graduate (GRAD)
Courses in curricular codes with CGS prefix.	Courses with catalog numbers up to 699 in curricular codes that do not have CGS prefix.	Courses with catalog numbers above 699 or 300-699 ending in G.
CGS MAT 105	MATH 105	ARCH 760, BMS 427G

- The graduate courses were previously U/G – now there are two sections of each class
 - If they are only open to graduate or undergraduate students (but approved for both) – there will not be a second section in the schedule
- Student's academic dean may approve enrollment in courses outside of career
 - Class permission in PAWS

- Registration change form
 - Exceptions for GRAD enrollment in 100/200-level courses

 - Four campuses:
 - Milwaukee (main), Washington County, Waukesha, and UW Colleges Courses Online (exchange program, enrolling through UWM)
 - Non-Milwaukee sections include 4th character
 - H = Washington County (e.g., 001H)
 - K = Waukesha (e.g., 801K)
 - E = UW College Courses Online (e.g., 201E)

• Transfer credit

○ UW Colleges Associate Degree

- Enrollment prior to Fall 2019 will be posted as transfer credit under a new Org ID – “UW Colleges Associate Degree”. Creating this new, unique Org ID allows us to build the entire UW Colleges course catalog to the equivalent College of General Studies course (ie HES 2 = CGS HES 2). Unlike traditional transfer credit, the GPA will be calculated and counted towards the ADUG cumulative GPA.

○ CGS transfer equivalencies

- Associate degree students with transfer credit from other institutions will have their transfer credit posted per usual

- Course equivalency will be a College of General Studies course.
- This means we may have two separate equivalencies in the system for the same course. The main distinguisher is that the ADUG equivalency will lead with CGS, the UGRD equivalency will not. In TED, the ADUG equivalencies are highlighted in blue.
- Please note that these equivalencies were determined by Colleges and may not perfectly align with the equivalencies in the system for UGRD students.

○ ASSOC to UGRD internal equivalencies

- Once a student moves from the ADUG program to a UGRD program, their CGS enrolled credit must be converted to regular Bachelor level courses.
- New internal transfer rules will allow us to internally transfer the Associate level courses to Bachelor level courses.
- These internal transfer rules are not in TED, but we hope to have them published somewhere soon for advisors to reference.

- Typically 2 weeks or less for transfer credit to be posted onto transcript for a student
- Cross-career tuition/fees

- Tuition generally follows degree level where credits will be applied

Associate	Associate and Bachelor Courses	Associate Tuition Rate (associate credits) + Bachelor Tuition Rate (bachelor credits)

- - If a student is taking both associate and bachelor credits (as an associate student) – they are not subject to the plateau
 - For example, if a student is taking 12 credits at Waukesha and 3 credits at UWM (bachelor's credits), they will be charged for those additional credits
 - For UW Colleges online – it is a fee in lieu of tuition across the board, and is not part of the plateau
 - If a student is a UWM bachelor student and wants to go home to take a class (particularly in summer), they will be charged bachelor's tuition and will still need advisor permission to enroll in an associate class
 - If they apply to a 2-year college they will run into problems with financial aid
 - Class permission in PAWS – career restriction override
 - Or through the registration form
 - What if a student wants to change branch campuses or from UWM to branch campus? (reverse transfer)
 - There will be some form, not fully developed yet. They will need to be very aware of financial aid restrictions
 - UW Colleges Online is a stop-gap measure for one year, it could look different in the 2020-2021 school year
- Each student has a home campus in PAWS
 - Bachelor and Graduate students: Milwaukee
 - AAS students: Waukesha or Washington County
- On-campus credits assessed the home campus seg fee rate regardless where the course is taught
 - E.g., Waukesha home campus student enrolls in 6 credits at Waukesha, 3 credits at Washington County, and 3 credits at Milwaukee would be assessed for 12 credits of seg fees at the Waukesha rate
 - Students receive access to seg fee services on home campus (can opt into other campuses)
- Course fees by term
 - New web application designed to identify four types of fees attached to class sections:
 - Differential Tuition, Distance/Online Fees, Special Course Fees, and Fees in Lieu of Tuition

- Data pulled directly out of course fee setup in PAWS
- Links from online SOC and referenced in PAWS Class Details
- uwm.edu/coursefees
