

Army Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) Four-Year Curriculum

Basic Course: Classes and Physical Fitness at UWM, Lab at Marquette

FRESHMAN (8-10 hours p/week)

Credits

Fall Semester

MIL SCI 101: Military Physical Training & Laboratory 1

MIL SCI 110: Leadership and Personal Development 1

Spring Semester

MIL SCI 102: Military Physical Training & Laboratory 1

MIL SCI 120: Introduction to Leadership 1

SOPHOMORE (9-12 hours p/week)

Fall Semester

MIL SCI 201: Military Physical Training & Laboratory 1

MIL SCI 210: Foundations of Leadership 2

Spring Semester

MIL SCI 202: Military Physical Training & Laboratory 1

MIL SCI 220: Foundations of Tactical Leadership 2

Summer Basic Camp – 30 days at Fort Knox, KY (if needed to replace Basic Course)

Advanced Course: Physical Fitness at UWM, Classes and Lab at Marquette

JUNIOR (15-20 hours p/week)

Fall Semester

MIL SCI 301: Military Physical Training & Laboratory 1

MIL SCI 310: Adaptive Team Leadership 3

Spring Semester

MIL SCI 302: Military Physical Training & Laboratory 1

MIL SCI 320: Applied Team Leadership 3

Summer Advanced Camp – 35 days at Fort Knox, KY

SENIOR (15-20 hours p/week)

Fall Semester

MIL SCI 401: Military Physical Training & Laboratory 1

MIL SCI 410: Adaptive Leadership 2

Spring Semester

MIL SCI 402: Military Physical Training & Laboratory 1

MIL SCI 420: Leadership in a Complex World 2

Total: 24

Required Professional Military Education Courses – 3 credits (Choose ONE):

MISL 1800: American Crucible: The Military and the Development of the US (at Marquette)

HIST 287: Vietnam War

HIST 419: America in Prosperity 1921-1945

HIST 418: America Since 1945

HIST 405: American Revolution

HIST 434: The United States as a World Power (may not be offered)

Total: 27

Students must fill out a cross town agreement to enroll in Marquette ROTC classes for full participation