

Musée Guimet, Paris

Hidden Treasure: Finding Women Dealers and Collectors of Far Eastern Art in Paris, 1858-1914

Wednesday, November 16, MIT 195
4:30-6pm

Elizabeth Emery

Professor of World Languages and Cultures, Montclair State University will be giving a free public talk about her recent book Reframing Japonisme: Women and the Asian Art Market in Nineteenth-Century France, 1853-1914 (Bloomsbury Visual Arts, 2020) and her digital humanities project with the National Institute (INHA) in Paris, "Connoisseurs, Collectors and Dealers of Asian Art in France, 1700-1939".

Breakfast Meet n' Greet, CRT 939, 9:30-11am

Sponsored by:

C21
Friends of Art History
Honors College
Anthropology Department

History Department
Global Studies
Women's & Gender Studies