

Resources from today's MeetUp: 12/12/17

Guiding Principles for Art Education Grant Writing – Jill La Grange

- Know your audience
- Make grant applications visually appealing
- Have others (principal, several colleagues) review your grant
- Avoid acronyms and specialized art/education language
- Include National Standards that align with project and grant focus
- Submit to many different grant programs
- Consider individual fund raising too (students' families, colleagues, your own family/friends)
- Create a detailed budget
- Write a thank you note
- Include the work and "voice" of your students
