Applications

Applications Due: FRIDAY, December 21, 2018 TO artseco-interns@uwm.edu

Site 1: Arts@Large

- Site Name and Location: Arts@Large
- Description: Arts@Large provides arts education services to students in Milwaukee Public Schools through workshops, residencies and whole-school model programs. Arts@Large interns will be paired with a Lead Teaching Artist to implement Arts@Large programming in K-12 classrooms in a teaching assistant capacity.
- Stipend/Hours: $750-$1,020
  - 5-8 hours per week for 15 weeks or 75-120 hours total
  - Interns must be available during the MPS school day (7:30am-3:30pm)

Site 2: ArtWorks for Milwaukee

- Site Name and Location: ArtWorks for Milwaukee
- Description: ArtWorks combines workforce development with arts education. Teen participants work under the guidance of a local lead artist trained in teaching 21st century job skills, such as problem solving, collaboration, and self-direction. ArtsECO Interns may work as support staff on the following spring 2019 programs:
  1) ArtWorks @ ArtWorks for Milwaukee
     - ArtsECO Interns will work with groups of teen interns who will research topics that interest them, learn how to message them, and create art pieces based on these topics for sale to the public.
     - Throughout the internship, teen participants create, sell, and market their own products.
  2) ArtWorks @ Walker’s Point Center for the Arts
     - ArtsECO Interns work with teens who will learn and practice 21st Century Skills through basic video and photography techniques that will allow them to share personal narratives through thoughtful compositions, rhythmic patterns, and juxtaposed visual relationships. The group will explore a variety of multimedia platforms and tools, including mobile phones and applications. At the end of the semester participants will complete a final project as a culmination of their new skill set and researched theme.
  3) ArtWorks @ Express Yourself Milwaukee
     - ArtsECO Interns will work with teen interns to learn and practice 21st Century Skills, in a therapeutic-based multi-arts studio setting. Teen participants will reflect and develop their personal artistic styles in visual art, poetry, rap, singing, instrument playing, theater and dance, while being role models and mentors for EXYO participants ages 7-21.
- Stipend/Hours: $1,200
  - 8 hours per week for 15 weeks or 120 hours total
  - Spring 2019 ArtsECO Interns who successfully complete their internship duties may be invited to stay on for a Summer 2019 internship with ArtWorks.
