

Teacher MeetUps are FREE professional development and networking opportunities for Milwaukee area teachers who teach/are interested in teaching through the arts. It is open to any educator and no prior experience is needed. Each MeetUp has a different focus and includes instruction on a particular art tool/skill, opportunities to meet/network with other educators and time for teachers to make art. Food and drink are always provided. It is a combination happy hour, work time, learn time!

MeetUps are held from 5-7pm on weeknights to accommodate a teacher's schedule.
