2018-2019
Professional Development Offerings

COURSE INFORMATION

Linguistic and Cultural Diversity: Building Background Knowledge to Create Personalized Care for Older Adults
Friday, September 21, 2018, 9:00a-12:00p, Jewish Home and Care Center
Instructor: Lynn Sedivy, MA-ESL

The Importance of Speech-Language Pathology as Part of the Rehabilitation Process for Older Adults
Friday, October 12, 2018, 9:00a-12:00p, Jewish Home and Care Center
Instructor: Julie Lenkiewicz, MS, CCC-SLP

Stress Reduction for Older Adults, Healthcare Workers, and Caregivers: A Pathway to Healthy Aging Using Mindfulness Based Activities
Friday, October 26, 2018, 1:00p-4:00p, Tudor Oaks Senior Living Community
Instructor: Cari Terry, BSE, CYT

Ethics & Boundaries for Hospice and Palliative Care
Friday, November 9, 2018, 8:30a-12:30p, Saint John’s On The Lake
Instructors: Jen Murray, MPH & Jeanette Martin, MAEd

LGBTQ+ Population and Aging
Friday, December 7, 2018, 9:00a-12:00p, Saint John’s On The Lake
Instructor: Jeanne Wagner, MSW, LCSW

Advocating for Older Adults as They Navigate the Complex World of Healthcare
Friday, January 11, 2019, 9:00a-12:00p, St. Anne’s Salvatorian Campus
Instructor: Holly Wesley, MSW, CISW

Effects of Tai Chi Exercise on Motor Function in Older Adults
Friday, March 1, 2019, 9:00a-12:00p, Milwaukee Catholic Home
Instructor: Saira Talwar, MS

The Importance of Health Literacy When Working with Older Adults
Friday, April 26, 2019, 9:00a-12:00p, Milwaukee Catholic Home
Instructor: Kris Barnekow, PhD, OTR/L, IMH-E

Connecting to the Future: Using the Power of the Mind and Relationships to Positively Impact the Aging Process
Friday, May 17, 2019, 9:00a-12:00p, Alzheimer's Association
Instructor: Lynda Markut, LSW, MS

Social Isolation and Connection: Opportunities for Communication Technologies
Friday, June 14, 2019, 9:00a-12:00p, Brookfield Rehabilitation
Instructor: Erin Ruppel, PhD

More info, including locations, available credit hours and full descriptions, can be found online at uwm.edu/catr/ProfessionalDevelopment or by contacting the Center for Aging & Translational Research at catr@uwm.edu or 414-229-7313.