

Come and Try Scottish Country Dance!

Looking to try something new? Join the Fun, Fitness, and Friendship offered by Scottish Country Dance (SCD)! SCD is the social and ballroom dance of Scotland that is danced ALL OVER THE WORLD! It is historical (dates back to the 17th Century), it is contemporary (new dances written daily), it is an ancestor to some US dance forms like Contra and Square Dancing, it is international*, it is evolving, AND it is taking US campuses by storm!

Social, Fun, and Good for the Body & Mind!
Bring friends! Or come to meet new friends!

The Milwaukee Scottish Country Dancers (MkeSCD) with the UWM Celtic Studies program is offering a BRAND NEW social dance class near the UWM Campus (in the Zao Church gym across the street from the Union) on Thursday evenings beginning February 1st [2/1 thru 5/9, with no class 3/21 or 28, 7:30-9PM]. The focus of this class will be to dance and learn with the energy and pacing appropriate to young adults – the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society (RSCDS) considers youth those 35 and under -- although all adults are most certainly welcome! We typically dance in multiple groups of 6-8 people to lively fiddle, accordion, pipe, and piano music recorded by world class musicians, but on occasion we even have live music!

This new course has the advantage of being "essentially" on the UWM campus as well as on a bus line! Parking is available on the street, in the Union parking lot, or at the Zelazo Center parking lot. Class costs are solely for the facility rental and will be pay-what-you-can at each class (suggested $3-5 cash). Please share this flyer with everyone you know who might be interested!

Teacher: Rebecca Renee Winnie is fully certificated by the RSCDS after a full career as a music educator. She teaches with the Milwaukee and Madison Scottish Country Dancers. Questions can be emailed to Rebecca at mkescd.rrw@gmail.com.
