

Self-Evaluation Checklist for Online Courses

Use this self-evaluation checklist to determine what elements of your online course you may want to address before the semester begins. This checklist is both a reminder of effective online teaching practices and an opportunity for self-reflection about your own pedagogical approaches. Keep in mind that this checklist is not exhaustive, and not every item will be equally relevant to your teaching situation. For additional information about each item, click on the number to the left of the item, which will take you to a help resource.
