

Brief Biography Chancellor Mark Mone, PhD

Mark Mone was appointed Chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 2014. He has put the University on a strategic course for strengthened student success, research, partnerships, entrepreneurship and innovation while managing unprecedented challenges facing higher education, and the consolidation of two regional campuses into branch campuses of UWM.

UWM is one of America's top research universities, educating more than 25,000 students on an operating budget of $653 million. Internally, Chancellor Mone has successfully led the state's second-largest University to institute operational efficiencies, executed strategic opportunities and enrollment management plans, and improved business practices.

Dr. Mone has served higher education for more than 30 years as a faculty member, associate dean and senior administrator. He has a B.S. in Management from Central Washington University, a M.B.A. from Idaho State University, and a Ph.D. in Organizational Behavior and Organization Theory from Washington State University. Prior to his work in academe, Chancellor Mone was a chef, food and beverage director, and opening assistant general manager in hospitality operations.
