unMASKing: Human Rights & the Pandemic
A Workshop for Educators
SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 20th

Guide your students to navigate the pandemic through multimedia lessons and activities!

The Covid-19 pandemic has highlighted and exacerbated existing human rights challenges including social and economic rights such as the rights to education, food and health.

The two-hour virtual workshop will introduce educators to “unMASKing: The Pandemic Curriculum Project” and possibilities for its use in the classroom or other learning environments. The workshop will provide opportunities to collaborate across classrooms.

The program is open to educators, parents and administrators in all settings (classrooms, organizations & homes).

HERE ARE THE DETAILS:
unMASKing: Human Rights and the Pandemic
Saturday, February 20th on Zoom
TIME: 11am - 1:00pm CST

FACILITATORS:
Elana Haviv is the founder and director of Generation Human Rights (GenHR).
Felisa Tibbitts is co-founder and director of Human Rights Education Associates (HREA) and lecturer at Teachers College of Columbia University.

This workshop is being funded by a Title VI grant from the U.S. Department of Education and organized by the Institute of World Affairs at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. The program is co-sponsored by Human Rights Educators USA, the University and College Consortium for Human Rights Education, and the UW-Milwaukee Center for Global Health Equity.