1999-2000 Ramona Tomlin Mattson Fellow, University of Iowa, Department of Communication Studies

I was honored to have received this award, which is one of two major awards for graduate students in the Department of Communication Studies at the University of Iowa. This fellowship is granted to one out of a possible one hundred graduate students in the department and is based on the student's academic progress and teaching excellence. Candidates who receive this award have a strong commitment to undergraduate teaching at the university level as well a well-thought out plan for their dissertation projects.

Top Paper, Interpersonal Communication Division, Western States Communication Association. Vancouver, BC
