On The Boards

What is CDS?

CDS provides community-based solutions and is a registered architect. We offer services to the public, institutions, and organizations. CDS and Reflo are in their third year of working with local schools to redesigning “zones” of the existing library. Almost 40% of the Gaenslen library staff want to bring new energy and excitement by maximizing triple-bottom-line benefits.

CDS is a Design-Build firm that assists communities, agencies, civic groups, and agencies. Students and faculty from UW-Milwaukee’s College of Architecture and Urban Planning and Design work in teams to design projects.

Schoolyard Redevelopment

CDS Staff: Jack Grover, Amanda Golemba, Lucas Dedrick

What’s the Best Way To Reuse Vacant Retail Stores In Milwaukee’s Neighborhoods?

How can vacant retail stores be reused for social activity. Programming opportunities include a vibrant gathering environment. Entrepreneurs can connect with local residents in work area, and future office and meeting rooms.

What are we up to?

What is our impact?

The Award recognizes Carolyn’s passion and impact. The nomination with past CDS staff and agencies. Students and faculty to agencies, civic groups, and nonprofit organizations. The proposed layout focuses on adjacencies between departments with unifying departments with a “welcome” area. lounge and improved work environments benefit to the community and the City.

New A&P Supervisor

Satterfield

Amanda Golemba

Amanda Golemba

Proposed public lobby with information kiosks and check-in reception. A separate space for Veterans, but also for residents to learn about the history of the Legion as well as the history of mounted patrol. CDS worked with the City of West Allis to redesign the existing building to a hub of vendors, entertainment, food trucks, and gathering. CDS developed a layout for marketplace stalls, food vendors, daily pop-up opportunities, and how we are impacting our communities. A...