Subject: Student Consumer Information Notice - Fall 2023

Student Financial Services

Dear Students,

In accordance with federal and state regulations, UWM is providing you with required information about the university.

Student consumer information includes various items that are listed with a brief description of each. The information is broken down into four categories:

- General Information
- Student Financial Assistance
- Health & Safety
- Student Outcomes

Click the button below to find the details on the Consumer Information webpage.
