Questions for Supervising with Care to Discuss During 1 on 1 Meetings with Your Team

Don’t think you have to have all the answers. If you get asked a tough questions, say “let me get back to you.”

Do you feel comfortable answering these questions? Make sure you are prepped and ready to ask.

Do you feel comfortable talking about the resources available?

Make sure that you are actively listening to the employee. Does your office allow for privacy?

Rephrase these questions below into your own words:

1. How are you handling job pressures? How is your work impacting you?
2. What do you need to do your job well these days?
3. What could be done to improve the culture at work?