Articulation Agreement: Program to Program Transfer Conditions from Human Services at MATC to Community Education at UWM

Students who have received or will receive an Associate of Applied Science degree in Human Services from MATC after April 2002 are eligible to transfer into the Community Education Program at UWM. Work with an MATC Transfer Specialist to review the following:

- The student must meet General Education Requirements and UWM Degree Requirements
- Course equivalencies below are only accepted for transfer students in the Human Services program who have Human Services Associate posted on their official transcript
- Course equivalencies above are subject to change in the event that the curricula of MATC or UWM undergoes revision
- The student may only transfer credits as outlined below in courses for which they have earned a grade C or better with a total credit maximum of 72 credits

Community Education majors must meet the regular University requirements for admission. Admission to UWM does not guarantee admission to the Community Education program in the School of Education. To be eligible to apply for admission to the program, students must have earned a minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average on all transferrable credits. A 2.0 grade point average is the absolute minimum and does not guarantee admission, so it is in the student's best interest to earn a higher GPA.
