

Email Template – Newly Admitted Students

We're eager to welcome you to UWM! As you prepare for your program, we want to share some additional information about licensure with you. Federal regulations require the Nursing program to disclose whether its degrees meet the educational requirements for licensure for prospective students who are located outside the State of Wisconsin.

According to your application, you are currently located outside the State of Wisconsin. We are reviewing licensure regulations in each state to determine whether or not your degree meets the educational requirements for licensure. The list below discloses the applicability of your degree to the licensure requirements in U.S. states and territories, including those where UWM has not yet made a determination.
