

MEET & GREET

with musician & activist

Ezé Wendtoin

UNIVERSITY of WISCONSIN
UWMILWAUKEE

TUESDAY

10/4

5:30-6:30 PM

IN THE LANGUAGE
OASIS
(CURTIN 187)

Ezé Wendtoin is a human rights activist and musician. He has been living in Germany since 2015, where he is currently pursuing a PhD in German Studies. His music and work (e.g., with refugees and learners of German) fights against racism and xenophobia and addresses what it means to speak and learn another language. He speaks Mooré, English, German, and French, and he has received multiple awards for his work.

Ezé is also active in his other home country, Burkina Faso. He is building bridges through two partnering organizations, TAM e.V. (Dresden) and APECA (Ouagadougou), which he founded. Their work includes the school project "Centre Warc-En-Ciel" and the Arts Centre "La Cour Warc-En-Ciel" in Ouagadougou, the capital of Burkina Faso.

Join us for a conversation with Ezé! Feel free to bring any percussion instruments you might own!
Snacks and Refreshments will be provided.

Presented and Supported by:

UWM German Program • Institute of World Affairs • The College of Letters & Sciences • Division of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion

• African & African Diaspora Studies • Cultures & Communities • Global Studies • MA in Languages, Literature & Translation (MALLT) • Peck School of the Arts • Translation & Interpreting Studies •

This event is partially funded by the U.S. Department of Education Title VI NRC Grant and The German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD)

Organizer

UWM German Program