

Confronting Anti-Asian Bias: A UWM Anti-Racism Roundtable

Thursday, May 6, 2021, 12:00 PM - 1:30 PM

Anti-Asian violence in the United States has increased significantly since the outbreak of the COVID-19 pandemic. Nationally, nearly 3,800 incidents have been reported since March 2020. In this roundtable, UWM students, staff, and faculty will share how the recent increase in anti-Asian racism has impacted campus community members and discuss what we can all do to stop hate.

Moderator:

Dr. Nan Kim, Associate Professor, History

Panelists:

- Dr. Prasenjit Guptasarma, Professor, Physics
- Pachoua Lor, Success Coordinator, SEAASC
- Dr. Aki Roberts, Associate Professor, Sociology
- Anvitha Sriram, Sophomore, Biological Sciences
- Dr. Juchuan Wang, Associate Professor, College of GS
- Xueyou Wang, Graduate Student, WGS

All UWM campus community members are invited to join this Teams Live conversation: Click Here or Scan QR Code

Sponsors:

Asian Faculty and Staff Association, Asian Studies Certificate Program, Division of Global Inclusion & Engagement, and Division of Student Affairs

Contacts: Natalie Chin, chinn@uwm.edu
Liz Drame, erdrame@uwm.edu
Michael Rogers, rogersmi@uwm.edu
Hilary Snow, snowh@uwm.edu